

This was a short workweek due to the Martin Luther King Jr. holiday, which was observed Monday. Despite being short on days, much took place during this abbreviated week. House and Senate committees are up and running, bills are being assigned, and public hearings are being held.

Senate and House appropriations committees begin public hearings

The Senate Appropriations Committee and most of the House appropriations committees met to discuss and plan for Missouri's FY 20 budget. Public testimony was the center of time spent and the committees will continue their work next week.
